appear to be :-

(i) Publishing a preliminary notice announcing that an examination is to be held in November 1942. Draft now is put up for consideration.

Under the revised rules, the examination will be held in two parts.
The dates on which it will be held may be fixed up later after a Board is appointed.

(ii) Appointment of a committee to conduct the examination. It is usual to have six members including the Director of Public Instruction (who is to be the Secretary) on the committee. On the last occasion the marginally noted gentlemen constituted the committee.
Except on the last occasion, the Vice-Chancellor used to be the Chairman of the committee. Mr N.S. Subba Rao Vice-Chancellor, was formerly appointed as Chairman. Subsequently, his son having sat for the M.C.S. Examination he resigned his chairmanship. The

MYSORE

Mr. E. G. MCALPINE,

Dated: 13th April, 1942.

Dear Mr Mehkri,

CB
14/4

With reference to your D.O. letter No.3291/C.B. dated 2nd April 1942, I am writing to ask whether there has been any mistake regarding the personnel of the Committee appointed to conduct the Mysore Civil Service Examination of 1940. The original Committee appointed consisted of Mr. N.S. Subba Rao, the then Vice-Chancellor of the University of Mysore as Chairman, ~~and~~ After the first meeting, however, Mr. Subba Rao retired from the Committee, as his son had entered his name as a candidate for the examination. So Sir D'Arcy Reilly was then appointed by Government to be Chairman, and no additional member was appointed in Mr. N.S. Subba Rao's place.

When I read your letter I could not remember the presence of Rao Bahadur Mr. Venkateshachar on the Committee. I accordingly wrote to Mr. A.R. Wadia to check my recollection, because the Director of Public Instruction is Secretary to the Committee, and the records are in his office. Mr. Wadia writes to say that after a scrutiny of the relevant records it is not found that Mr. Venkateshachar was appointed a member of the Committee at all for the examination of 1940. From memory I think it is possible that he was a member of the Committee for the 1938 examination, and that his name has crept into your letter under reference by mistake. I should be glad, however, if this might be verified from Government records. After hearing from you I shall submit my opinion in the matter of constituting a Committee for this year.

Yours sincerely

Dear Sir,

Please refer to your D.O. letter No.P.997 dated the 13th April 1942 regarding the personnel of the Committee appointed to conduct the M.C.S. Examination of 1940. I find from the Secretariat file that Rao Bahadur Mr. B. Venkateshachar was not a member of the Committee of 1940. As stated by you, it has wrongly crept in, as he happened to be a member of the previous Committee. I regret the mistake.

Dear Mr. Mehkri,

I am sorry to trouble you, when I know that you must be extremely busy with the Representative Assembly, but I am anxious to find out whether there is any chance of orders being issued during the next day or two regarding the appointment of the Committee to conduct this year's M.C.S. Examination. As at present arranged, I am intending to be in Bangalore all next week and would like, if possible to hold the first meeting of the Committee before I return to Mysore. In 1940 the first meeting of the Committee was held nearly a month earlier than it can be held this time, and that is fairly a serious shortening of the time candidates will have for preparation. All the members proposed for the Committee except myself are in Bangalore, so that a meeting could be arranged at a day or two's notice by telephone, if I can only have a formal intimation sent. If it is impossible for you to get orders soon, I shall have of course to make a special journey from Mysore to Bangalore for this meeting, but in these times of petrol shortage and travelling difficulties I am anxious to avoid that course if possible.
